Describe a bag you want to own

- What kind of bag it is?
- Where you want to buy it
- How much it will cost you
- Why you want this kind of bag

Sample Answer:

I have a collection of bags like a clutch bag, shoulder bag, backpack, handbag and a messenger bag. Now I need a sling bag, and I have a solid reason to buy it. I am not sure where I will buy it. However, I can buy it online too. I am going to my sister's place next week. I might go with her to the local market. She knows some good shops in Dehradun. But, I have one another option, and that is Mynta.com. There is a good collection of a variety of bags on this online shopping cart. There are many beautiful sling bags, but we can not check the quality of material online.

Describe a bag you want to own?

It will cost me somewhere between 1200 Indian rupees to 2500 Indian rupees. I checked the price on the online portal. There are many local and international brands available in the market. I know some people are brand freaks, but I am not, so quality and looks matter to me but not any particular brand.

I need a sling bag because it comes with a flexible strip which I can easily adjust according to my need. When I go to college, I need to keep necessary items like a cell phone, car keys in my bag. Currently, I use a clutch bag for this purpose. But it is not safe for me as I have a poor memory and I have a habit of forgetting things. With the help of a sling bag, I would not leave my items behind.

Thank you!
